Next auction : Spring 2014

Zurich, September 2013

Dear Client, Dear Customer,

Our next auction will be held in April 2014. Excellent material, beautiful collections and individual items of the most varied classical and modern categories, from

Switzerland, Liechtenstein, and other countries of Europe, from Overseas, and thematic collections, have already been entrusted to us.

Are you thinking of selling something from your collection? If you are, we should be pleased if you would then communicate with us very soon. We are experienced philatelists and can give you competent advice that would be pertinent for the best possible sale of your postal material, whether stamps, envelopes, rare post-marks or postal stationery. You can profit from our excellent relations with affluent purchasers throughout the world, many of whom are prepared to pay highest prices for what they wish to acquire for their collections.

The last date for acceptance of delivered material is middle of January, 2014.

The sale of postal material, stamps or other, is a matter of confidence. From the first preliminary discussion through a professional evaluation and perfect execution of sale at our auction we can present service of excellence. We try to achieve upon the basis of lengthy experience with auctions the most favourable possible grouping of your material. With attention to the current market we set attractive starting prices. Thanks to a large stock of customers that has been built up with care throughout the world over a number of years we achieve for you, with lots that are offered without a lower limit of price, in total most favourable results. No lots are returned.

Deliveries are from the moment of their transfer to us or, as this may be, of their posting at a post-office insured against all risks. Generous advance-payments are always available. You may be pleased by your very early contact with us and should not hesitate to make use of our advice that is without obligation or cost to you. We should be pleased to receive your inquiry and assure you of reliable service and absolute discretion.

We close with friendly greetings
